PRESIDENT & CEO

Dear NABA Nation,

Welcome to the dazzling city of Las Vegas for our 53rd annual national convention and expo, Insight 2024: FLOW! We are filled with immense pride and gratitude to have the privilege of carrying forward the transformative work started by our founders—the NABA Nine—who, 55 years ago, courageously addressed the systemic challenges faced by Black accounting professionals. This week, I look forward to being surrounded by our extraordinary community of leading industry professionals, advocates, and Black Business Leaders.

While we are gathered to celebrate our achievements, we recognize that our journey is far from over. NABA's unwavering commitment to pathing and paving the way to a more just world drives us forward with intention and purpose. United by one mission and one voice, we have the power to accomplish remarkable achievements.

Let us embrace this transformative journey toward a just and inclusive world, fostering growth, advancement, and a legacy of excellence that will inspire generations to come. Together, we can build a future where equity is the norm and opportunities are abundant for all.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our sponsors and speakers. Your support and contributions are vital to the success of our convention and to the advancement of our mission. Thank you for your unwavering commitment to creating an impactful and memorable experience at Insight 2024: FLOW.

With gratitude,

Guylaine Saint Juste, SHRM-SCP, CAE

WELCOME TO THE 2023 NABA NATIONAL CONVENTION & EXPO

Dear NABA Nation,

We are excited to welcome you to this year's convention, where our theme, "Flow," embodies our collective journey toward continuous growth and interconnected success. This theme captures the essence of our progress and the seamless movement of ideas, resources, and opportunities that drive Black Business Leaders forward in organizations and communities nationwide.

NABA's legacy is one of pride and achievement, and we are thrilled to reflect on the remarkable strides we have made this past year. We are continuing to expand our professional horizons and are excited to welcome new members and partners from diverse industries beyond accounting, including finance, business, and entrepreneurship.

The National Planning Committee has curated an array of informative sessions on key topics such as cyber security, building intergenerational wealth, and leveraging artificial intelligence. We invite you to engage with the convention fully—connect deeply with your colleagues, participate actively in the sessions, and be inspired by our distinguished guest speakers. This is your opportunity to flow with innovative ideas and forge meaningful connections.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to our members, corporate partners, staff, and volunteer leaders who have dedicated their efforts to making this year's convention a success. It is an honor to be part of an organization that shares the common goal of empowering Black Business Leaders at every stage of their journey.

Herschel Frierson
NABA Board Chair

WHO WE ARE

NABA Inc. is a premier global organization that encourages Black excellence and gives agency to its members to rise in professional business, financial careers and entrepreneurship. NABA empowers Black business leaders at every step of the journey to uphold high standards, moral behavior and meritorious service.

WHAT WE DO

We engage, empower, and educate Black Business Leaders and Institutions by providing a platform to enhance skills and elevate Voice. Our 5 Es: engage, empower, educate, enhance, and elevate. Doing so, we're "lifting as we climb."

WHAT WE DO

We path and pave the way to a more just world, unleashing endless opportunities for growth and advancement so that Black Business Leaders achieve the best version of themselves at every point of their journey.

WHAT WE KNOW

According to Dr. John Holland, the late American psychologist and the famous creator of the career development model occupational codes, if you expose young students to a broad range of career options early, they will have more information and become more aware of the correlation between education and success... Students who acquire career awareness at an early age are better prepared to engage in rigorous and challenging courses as they progress through school because they have a clearer idea of what their goals are.

SPEAKERS

VIOLA DAVIS

Award-Winning Actress, Producer &
New York Times Best-Selling Author

Viola Davis is a critically revered, award-winning actress, producer, and New York Times Best-Selling Author. She is the first black actress to win two Tony Awards ("Fences" & "King Hedley II"), an Oscar ("Fences"), and an Emmy ("How to Get Away with Murder"). She also achieved EGOT status by winning a Grammy for the audiobook recording of her memoir "Finding Me."

Davis was most recently seen portraying Nanisca in "The Woman King." Based on true events and produced by Davis' JuVee Productions, the film tells the story of a general of an all-female West African military.

In 2021, Davis received an Oscar nomination for her transformative performance as Ma Rainey in Netflix's "Ma Rainey's Black Bottom." She also won a SAG award for the role and received a Golden Globe Award nomination and Critic's Choice Award nomination.

In 2019, Davis wrapped the final season of the ABC series "How to Get Away with Murder," from ABC Studios and Shondaland. In 2015, Davis received the Screen Actors Guild Award for "Outstanding Performance by a Female Actor in a Drama Series," in addition to becoming the first African American actress to receive the Primetime Emmy Award for "Outstanding Lead Actress in a Drama Series." In 2016, she received her second Screen Actors Guild Award and her second Emmy nomination for portraying Annalise Keating and in 2019, received her third Emmy Nomination for the role. In 2019, Davis was also seen in Amazon Studio's family comedy, "Troop Zero," directed by Bert & Bertie.

In 2018, Davis was seen starring in Fox's "Widows." Directed by Steve McQueen and written by Gillian Flynn, the film follows a group of widows after their criminal husbands are killed during a heist.

In 2017, she was seen in "Fences" for Paramount Pictures. The film was directed and produced by Denzel Washington and was adapted from August Wilson's play. Davis garnered Critics Choice, Golden Globe, SAG, BAFTA, and an Academy award in the category of "Best Supporting Actress" for her portrayal of 'Rose Maxson.' Davis also starred with Washington in the 2010 revival of the play on Broadway. Her performance earned her a Tony Award, as well as the Drama Critics' Circle Award, Outer Critics Circle Award, and Drama Desk Award. "Fences" was also honored with the Tony Award for "Best Play Revival" and was the most profitable theater production of the year.

In 2016, Davis was seen in the highly anticipated "Suicide Squad" with Will Smith, Margot Robbie, and Jared Leto. The film broke the all-time opening record for August with $135 million. In 2015, Davis starred opposite Jennifer Lopez in "Lila & Eve," the story of two mothers whose children are killed in drive-by shootings. Davis also took the reins as a producer on this film, along with her husband, Julius Tennon, for their company, JuVee Productions.

In 2013, film audiences saw Davis in four vastly different projects. In the film adaptation of the popular science fiction novel "Ender's Game," Davis portrayed military psychologist 'Major Gwen Anderson,' opposite Asa Butterfield, Hailee Steinfeld, Abigail Breslin, and Harrison Ford. In Warner Bros.' "Prisoners," a dark thriller about two families shattered by the kidnapping of their daughters on Thanksgiving Day, she starred alongside Jake Gyllenhaal, Hugh Jackman, Maria Bello, Terrence Howard, and Paul Dano. In "Beautiful Creatures," Davis joined Emma Thompson and Jeremy Irons in telling the tale of two teens confronting a multi-generational curse. Warner Brothers and Alcon produced the film.

In 2012, Davis and her husband founded JuVee, with its focus being to give a voice to the voiceless through strong, impactful, and culturally relevant narratives. The Los Angeles-based and artist-driven company produces film, television, and digital content across all of entertainment.

In 2012, Davis received an Oscar nomination for "Best Actress" for her portrayal of the heartbroken but stoic 'Aibileen Clark' in "The Help." Emma Stone, Bryce Dallas Howard, and Octavia Spencer also starred. The film adaptation of Kathryn Stockett's best-selling novel, directed by Tate Taylor, was set in Jackson, Mississippi, during the turbulent 1960s, and was also nominated for an Academy Award for "Best Picture." Davis won the Screen Actors Guild and Critics' Choice "Best Actress" Awards for her portrayal of 'Aibileen,' and was also nominated for a Golden Globe and British Academy Film Award. The film won a Screen Actors Guild Award for "Outstanding Performance by a Cast in a Motion Picture" and a Critics' Choice Award for "Best Acting Ensemble."

In 2008, Davis starred in the critically revered film "Doubt" based on John Patrick Shanley's Tony Award-winning play, where she portrayed 'Mrs. Miller,' the mother of a young boy who piques the fascination of a Catholic priest. Davis shared the screen alongside Meryl Streep, Amy Adams, and Phillip Seymour Hoffman. Davis was nominated for a Golden Globe Award, Screen Actors Guild Award, and an Academy Award for "Best Supporting Actress." The National Board of Review recognized Davis with the Breakthrough Award and she was also honored by the Santa Barbara Film Festival as a Virtuoso.

That same year, Davis had a six-episode arc in Showtime's hit series "United States of Tara," written by Academy-Award winner Diablo Cody. Davis portrayed 'Lynda P. Frazier,' a wildly eccentric artist and friend to 'Tara' (Toni Collette).

Davis won the Independent Spirit Award for "Best Supporting Female" for her performance in "Antwone Fisher." Additional film credits include, "Get On Up," "Blackhat," "Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close," "Knight and Day," "Nights in Rodanthe," "Madea Goes to Jail," "Law Abiding Citizen," "Disturbia," "Eat, Pray, Love," "It's Kind of a Funny Story," "The Architect," "Never Back Down" and "Far From Heaven." She worked with director Steven Soderbergh on "Solaris," "Traffic," "Out of Sight," and "Syriana," which Soderbergh produced for director Stephen Gaghan.

In 2004, Davis starred on the stage in the Roundabout Theatre Company's production of Lynn Nottage's play, "Intimate Apparel," directed by Daniel Sullivan. She garnered the highest honors for an off-Broadway play, including "Best Actress" awards from the Drama Desk, the Drama League, the Obie, and the Audelco Award. Davis was nominated for the Lucille Lortel Award as well. She reprised her role at the Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles where she was recognized with the Ovation, Los Angeles Drama Critics, and the Garland Awards.

In 2001, Davis was awarded a Tony for "Best Performance by a Featured Actress in a Play" for her portrayal of 'Tonya' in "King Hedley II." She commanded the attention of critics and audiences alike for her portrayal of "Tonya," a 35-year-old woman who is forced to fight for the right to abort an unwanted pregnancy. Davis also received a Drama Desk Award in recognition of her work.

A graduate of The Julliard School, Davis received an Honorary Doctorate during its 109th Commencement Ceremony and she also holds an Honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts degree from her alma mater, Rhode Island College. She resides in Los Angeles with her husband and daughter.

TOMMY DAVIDSON

Actor & Comedian

Tommy Davidson's exceptional range – from stand-up comedy and acting to versatile music accomplishments – have earned him a reputation as an extraordinary performer who delivers no matter the arena. Best known as one of the stars of the hit television show In Living Color, Davidson's visibility has allowed him to become a household name known for his innovative talent.

Davidson started his career as a standup comedian in Washington DC, earning an ardent following. Spotted by major concert promoters, he was first booked as the opening act for Patti LaBelle, Kenny G and Luther Vandross. It wasn't long before he came to Hollywood and was headlining the biggest rooms and met Robert Townsend. This led to his first national tv appearance and starring role in Partners in Crime, the conduit to Keenan Ivory Wayans, who proved instrumental in Davidson's career by offering him an opportunity to audition.

Davidson starred in Disney Channel's beloved animated series The Proud Family (2001-05) and recently returned to topline their new hit, "The Proud Family: Louder and Prouder" (Disney +) to rave reviews. Other 2022 guest starring credits include CBS comedy series The Neighborhood; standout roles on VH1's hit A Black Lady Sketch Show; the Nick Cannon-directed TV movie Miracles Across 125th Street, BET+'s The Ms. Pat Show and the Netflix special Sarah Cooper: Everything's Fine.

The multihyphenate is perhaps best known for starring in the groundbreaking sketch comedy series In Living Color and becoming a standout with his impressions of Sammy Davis Jr., Michael Jackson and other entertainment icons. His performance on the series resulted in three Showtime specials: On Strength of New York, Illin' in Philly, and Takin' it to DC. Davidson also hosted and starred in the network's Chocolate Sundaes Comedy Show, as well as three seasons of ABC's Vacation Creation.

Davidson voiced the series regular role of Cream Corn in the Adult Swim action-comedy spoof Black Dynamite, and has also made multiple guest appearances on shows like MTV's Wild 'N Out, BET's Real Husbands of Hollywood and ABC's Celebrity Wife Swap. He also recently headlined The Off Color Comedy Tour with Keenan Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans and David Alan Grier, and co-headlines with Katt Williams, Mike Epps and Martin Lawrence to sell out large venue audiences.

Davidson's feature credits include Spike Lee's Bamboozled, Morgan Creek's Juwanna Mann, Ace Ventura II: When Nature Calls opposite Jim Carrey, and Strictly Business opposite Halle Berry among others. He also recently starred in the feature documentaries I Am Comic opposite Tim Allen and Lewis Black, and Dying Laughing alongside Jamie Foxx, Kevin Hart, Amy Schumer and Sarah Silverman.

His most recent critically lauded music duets include Sweet Reunion with multi-Grammy winner Dave Koz and I Know with A-list saxophonist, Richard Elliot.

Kensington Books published Davidson's memoir Living in Color: What's Funny about Me, recounting his personal triumphs after having been abandoned as an infant in 2020 achieving historic sales.

BEBE WINANS

6x Grammy Award Winning Singer

Benjamin, "BeBe" Winans, the six-time Grammy Award winner, is the seventh child and youngest male of the Detroit-based first family of gospel music. BeBe is best known as an inspirational, R&B, and popular vocalist, songwriter who along with his musical partner and sister CeCe Winans are the first true Christian crossover artists to hit the mainstream. After 10 years working behind the scenes on projects such as serving as a former Executive Music Producer for the OWN Network's latest scripted series, "Greenleaf" and host of his own radio show on the Heart & Soul Channel (68) on Sirius/XM Radio Networks on Sunday Mornings (9am ET/7am PT), he moves back into the forefront with plans to release a new album and a new production of his buzzed about play "Born For This: The BeBe Winans Story" in Boston.

The first single from the album, "He Promised Me" featuring Tobbi & Tommi and introducing Kiandra reached #1 on the Billboard Gospel airplay charts in April making it his first solo #1 in his career.

An artist with his message based in the church and its word, BeBe has had an exciting and unique career. Born For This: The BeBe Winans Story, tells the story of BeBe's life through new music as well as Winans' family hits. The musical is co-written and directed by Charles Randolph-Wright (Motown: The Musical), with book, music, and lyrics by BeBe Winans and Charles Randolph-Wright. The play has had critically acclaimed productions at the Alliance Theatre in Atlanta in April 2016, Arena Stage in Washington, DC in July 2016 and Los Angeles in August 2017.

BeBe Winans has won six Grammy Awards (three solo and three with sister CeCe Winans), ten Dove Awards, six Stellar Awards, four NAACP Awards (three with CeCe and one with 3WB with brothers Marvin and Carvin), and three Soul Train Music Awards (two of them with sister CeCe).

Renowned as the breakthrough artist to bridge the language of his roots in the church with a chart-topping, award-winning career spanning audiences universally throughout all genres, Winans is also an author and an actor; with Denzel Washington's The Manchurian Candidate and Broadway's The Color Purple opposite Chaka Khan amongst his credits. Teaming with his younger sister, Priscilla "CeCe", the duo first began crossing lines as "adopted children" of Jim and Tammy Faye Bakker on the PTL television show. Their first tour, on which Whitney Houston proclaimed herself their "sister" and sang background for the siblings, set the tone for a very special career.

BeBe & CeCe Winans have taken their message and presented it in a way that has touched and inspired a wide variety of audiences. They are the first brother and sister to have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Together, BeBe & CeCe have nine successful gold and platinum recordings and in 1995 they began to explore their solo endeavors.

BeBe, with his sisters, brothers, parents, and on his own, has achieved iconic status with the audiences he has moved and encouraged through the Winans' brand of popular inspirational songs.

As a solo artist, BeBe has released seven albums with guest appearances from friends as disparate as Eric Clapton, Stevie Wonder, David Foster, Anita Baker, best friend Whitney Houston, and members of the Winans family. BeBe is known for his jaw-dropping performances on some of the most important and star-studded musical specials of the past decades.

"When you're a teenager you don't think your life is being recorded for others to learn from it, or to be healed by it, or better yet to find strength through your fears and failures," shares BeBe Winans. "But now I know these were God's plans for my life. We are all born with and for a purpose and unfortunately, where the journey takes us, we don't know. What we can know is that when we have arrived at that place, you can be assured that God was right there with every step, and it was all destined to be." This new musical celebrates that journey

KID CAPRI

Grammy Award Winning DJ and Producer

Grammy Award Winning DJ and Producer Kid Capri is globally known as an originator, innovator, and pioneer in Hip-Hop culture. Dubbed The Guru of Mixtapes, Kid Capri literally redefined the term “DJ” as he blazed a trail with his array of fire mixtapes and lit crowd hyping performances; he became a star in his own right, becoming just as popular as the artists whose tracks he included in his sets and mixtapes. Kid’s humble roots can be traced back to his parents’ home in the Bronx, where, at 10 years old, he would scratch records on his father’s old Zenith stereo system. As soon as he was old enough, he hit the pavement and caught a buzz hustling his DJ mixtapes on the streets and performing local gigs. His grassroots approach became a template for success emulated by the DJs that followed in his footsteps.

Kid Capri became the first DJ to perform on major networks like BET and VH1, and went on to produce tracks for Snoop Dogg, Jay-Z, Madonna, Heavy D, and 50 Cent, to name a few. He also served as the touring DJ for legends like Jay Z, Aaliyah, Salt-N Peppa, Timbaland, and most recently RBRM. Kid won a Grammy for producing a song on Jay-Z’s classic album, Hard Knock Life, and in 2018 he narrated Kendrick Lamar’s album Damn, the only hip hop album to ever win a Pulitzer Prize. He also lent his iconic crowd-hyping vocals to Jennifer Lopez’s All I Have Las Vegas Residency during the portion of her show dedicated to The Bronx. Kid Capri starred in the popular HBO series Russel Simmons Def Comedy Jam and recently returned for The Netflix Def Comedy Jam’s 25th Anniversary Special. He was also the lead judge on VH1’s Master of the Mix DJ Competition show. In 2022, Kid was featured in the Mixtape documentary and appeared on The Proud Family: Louder and Prouder on Disney+. That same year, Kid released his first album in 24 years, The Love, which was created to lift hearts around the world. Completely self-written, self-produced, and his most prized project to date, The Love is a well-rounded work guaranteed to give listeners of any generation a good time.

This past summer, Kid immersed himself in celebrating 50 years of hip hop. He curated the 50 Years of Hip Hop segment at the 2023 BET Awards on June 25th, where he shared the stage with Busta Rhymes, T.I., Jeezy, Fat Joe, Remy Ma, Ja Rule, and more; performed on the main stage at the 2023 ESSENCE Festival of Culture on July 1st; and he performed at the official Hip Hop 50 concert at Yankee Stadium (on August 11 – hip hop’s birthday), where he brought out Yankee legend Derek Jeter as a special guest onstage. Kid also performed at the ONE Music Fest in Atlanta on the 50th Anniversary of Hip Hop stage in October.

From Local Legend to Global Icon, and recognized as the world’s greatest, Kid Capri continues to shape the landscape of DJ culture, leaving an everlasting footprint on the industry and setting trends that span generations.

MADE

Making Accounting Diverse and Equitable

Leave a lasting legacy in accounting

Engage with industries by being your authentic self. With tailored resources addressing leading barriers such as cost of tuition and lack of knowledge about the accounting profession, Deloitte's MADE (Making Accounting Diverse and Equitable) commitment helps racially and ethnically diverse students and professionals excel.

As the lead sponsor of Insight 2024: FLOW, we proudly champion diversity and inclusion in the industry and look forward to connecting.
