

Faculty Track: Shape the Next Generation of Accountants

Apply to our Faculty Track to receive an exclusive opportunity to access resources and develop strategies for success in leveraging your accounting experience to prepare the next generation of accounting talent.

In addition to free American Accounting Association (AAA), IMA® (Institute of Management Accountants), California Society of CPAs, and NABA Inc. membership, members of this Faculty Track will receive:

- Participation in Strategies for Success in the College Classroom workshop facilitated by AAA
- Diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging training through AAA certificate programs
- Opportunity to build a faculty practitioner network
- Continuing Professional Education courses that aid in development of supplemental subject matter
- Engaging IMA® resources for the classroom including IECJ® (IMA Educational Case Journal) teaching cases and notes, gamified teaching content, online self-study courses, and more

This opportunity is available to Black accounting professionals who meet the following criteria:

- Possess an accounting degree (undergraduate level or higher) or Master of Business Administration
- Commit to teaching as an adjunct faculty member for a two-year period
- Commit to participation in a 2-day Strategies for Success in the College Classroom workshop and completion of two AAA certificates: The Architecture of Inclusion and The Inclusive Classroom
- California resident during the program

Scan here to apply to the Faculty Track:

Diversifying the Accountancy Pipeline in California

The Association of Accountants and Financial Professionals
in Business

CalCPA

American
Accounting
Association

Thought Leaders in Accounting

